

Paul Heithaus, MSW
Military Pathways

A native of St. Louis, MO, Paul Heithaus moved to Boston in 2002. He received his Masters of Social Work Degree from Boston College in 2006. Prior to joining Screening for Mental Health, Paul worked in Community Relations and Program Development in the Office of Massachusetts Attorney General Martha Coakley. He also spent several years providing Mental Health and clinical services to both youth and adults involved with the Criminal Justice System.